PARSONS BRINCKERHOFF CONTINUES TO SUPPORT SIHIP

Today Parsons Brinckerhoff confirmed its ongoing role in the delivery of the Strategic Indigenous Housing and Infrastructure Program (SIHIP).

Managing Director Dr Jim Mantle said PB's principal task was to establish the alliance-based delivery model at the start of this five-year program.

"The Australian and Northern Territory Governments will take on full and shared responsibility for program management and direction within a new governance framework.

"PB remains committed to assisting the Australian and Northern Territory Governments with relevant elements of the program.

"We will continue to provide high-level strategic advice and technical expertise moving forward.

"The priority is to continue the work delivering better housing for Indigenous Territorians," said Dr Mantle.
